By JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Game and Fish Commission today for prompt action of the problem of wolves and other predatory animals in the state.

The council recognized that it has no control over the Game and Fish Commission, which is an independent agency, but the threat was raised that the commission's budget may run into trouble in the 1963 legislature unless the Commission accedes to the Council's wishes.

The Commission was given 60 days in which to make a progress report to the Council's Budget and Appropriations Committee.

The problem of predatory animals was explored by the commission Thursday. A delegation from southwest Arkansas said hawks were causing extensive losses to poultry and cattle raisers.

In discussion by the council today it developed that there is considerable concern about wolves in other areas.

"This is an emergency," declared Perry County Representative Paul Van Dalsen, "and it is Continued on Page Four

Montana's Governor Dies in Crash

WOLF CREEK, Mont. (AP)—Gov. Donald G. Nutter of Montana, his executive secretary, the state agriculture commissioner and three crew members perished Thursday in a plane crash.

Death of the Republican governor, who recently refused to claim United Nations Day in Montana, shocked this state of about 675,000 inhabitants.

Nutter, 46, a World War II bomber pilot and former state GOP chairman, completed his first year in office Jan. 1. He was elected in November 1959 to a four-year term ending in January 1963.

Taking over as chief executive will be the lieutenant governor, Republican Tim M. Babcock, 42, a Billings truck firm operator and former state legislator.

"I've lost the best friend I had and Montana has lost the best friend it had," said Babcock from the governor's mansion where he was called by close friends of the governor's attractive, dark-haired widow, Maxine.

Killed with Nutter when the plane apparently went out of control in turbulent weather and crashed in a mountain canyon near Wolf Creek, were his executive secretary, Dennis B. Gordon, 38, former Billings oilman and lawyer; State Agriculture Commissioner Edward C. Wren, 43, a Cascade grain farmer and stock rancher; and crew members, pilot Cliff Hanson, co-pilot Joseph Devine and engineer "Chico" Ballard, all of Great Falls.

The twin-engine C47 National Guard plane was carrying the governor and his party to a speaking engagement at Cut Bank in northern Montana near the Canadian border. The plane crashed about 3:30 p.m., about 30 minutes after the plane left Montana's capital city 35 miles south of Wolf Creek.

"The plane was demolished," reported rancher Ed Wirth after visiting the crash scene which officers quickly blocked off.

Rain, Sleet, Snow Spread Across U. S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Rain, sleet and snow spread across wide areas of the nation today and colder air headed from the Rockies into sections of the Midwest and in parts of the Northeast.

Cold wave warnings were posted for North Dakota, northern South Dakota, northern Minnesota and parts of Montana. The Weather Bureau said the cold air from Canada is expected to send temperatures to 15 to 25 degrees below zero by Saturday morning, low zero by Saturday morning.

Wet spots covered areas in the North, Midwest, South and East but amounts in most places during the night and early morning were not heavy.

However, a storm developing in the southern Plains brought moderate to heavy rainfall from the Middle Mississippi Valley through Tennessee and the Ohio Valley to North Carolina and southern Virginia. Rain changing to snow was forecast in a broad belt from the extreme southern Rockies through the central Plains to the west central Upper Great Lakes. Two inches of snow fell in Albuquerque, N.M.

The storm also was expected to bring showers from the southern Plains and western Gulf Coast northeastward from northern sections of the eastern Gulf states to the Lower Ohio Valley.

During the night and early morning rain splashed the northern Pacific Coast, with showers and freezing drizzle inland in the northern Plateau and northern Rockies.

Fairly cold weather continued in the Plains states. Temperatures ranged from near zero to 20 in the central Plateau and parts of the southern Plateau. Readings were in the 20s and 30s in the northern half of the area from the Rockies eastward. Higher marks prevailed in other sections of the country, ranging into the 70s in Florida and southern Texas.

Five Children Perish in House Fire

CHARLESTON, Ark. (AP)—Five children, ranging in age from seven weeks to six years, died in their beds Thursday night in a house fire which broke out while their parents were away.

Thursday night's dead were Charles Edward Grady, six; Sandra Louise Grady, four; Callie Scott, two; Thomas Benjamin Scott, one, and Millie Sue Scott, seven weeks.

Three older children escaped slightly burned and with singed hair.

The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Scott, arrived home as the remains of the house, about four miles southeast of Charleston, were caving in.

It was the latest in a series of similar fires in Arkansas during the past two weeks.

Seventeen persons, ten of them in one family, died in house fires last week.

The older two were children of Mrs. Scott by a former marriage. Deputy Coroner William Rice said he wasn't certain how the fire started but that Charlotte Grady, 13, told him that before they went to bed the children had been thrusting pieces of paper into a wood heater and letting them burn.

Rice theorized that a coal may have been brushed unnoticed to the floor, smoldered and set the house on fire after the children were in bed.

Charlotte, Betty Grady, 10, and David Grady, nine were awakened by the fire and got out of the house. They were unable to save the younger children.

CHARLESTON, Ark. (AP)—Five children of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Scott of near Charleston burned to death in a fire which destroyed the Scott home Thursday night.

Three other children escaped. The parents were not at home when the fire broke out.

They arrived while the house was in flames.

It was the latest in a series of house fires in Arkansas during the past two weeks.

Everything Is 'Go' for Trip Around World

By RAYMOND J. CROWLEY

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—In the clipped lingo of rocketry, "everything is go" for America's first try to put an astronaut in orbit Saturday.

Which means that, barring some snag now unforeseen, Marine Corps Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr. will fight his duel with the cosmos — an attempt to whirl around the globe three times in 4½ hours.

Expected launch time is somewhere between 7:30 a.m. (Eastern Standard Time) and 12:30 p.m. If Glenn departs skyward early in this period, he and the ground controllers will aim at three global circuits. If later, the number of orbits will be cut to two or even one.

This is because the rescue teams must have plenty of daylight to fish him and his data-crammed capsule out of the western Atlantic Ocean.

Meanwhile, about a mile and a half from the pad where Glenn's great Atlas rocket stood in readiness today, an even bigger booster was prepared for a reconnaissance mission to the moon.

The Atlas-Agena B, 102-feet tall, was assigned the task of carrying a Ranger 3 spacecraft to the moon, sending back TV pictures as it neared the earth's satellite, and then landing a package of instruments on the lunar surface to flash tidings about any moonquakes.

The firing was scheduled for mid-afternoon.

As for Glenn's Mercury astronaut mission, a big huddle was held at this missile range headquarters Thursday and Walter C. Williams, Mercury operations director, called the roll.

The Air Force reported the Atlas D booster was "go" (ready to go). This Atlas, plus the space-shuttle atop it and a 16-foot escape tower on top of that, stands 93 feet tall.

Jr. Auxiliary Plans Various Projects

The Hope Chapter of Junior Auxiliaries voted to cooperate with the local unit of the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Assn. in having a hair-styling clinic for teenage girls during this week of Feb. 12-17.

This project fits in with the auxiliaries' objectives in working for children and youth in every aspect of their personality and growth. Mrs. John Randolph was appointed by the president, Mrs. George Wright, to work with the officers of the beauty operators' association and selected members of the school faculty on the clinic.

At the regular meeting of the Hope Junior Auxiliary, held in the Community Room of the First National Bank on Wednesday, reports from standing committees were heard.

Mrs. W. M. Duckett was given a standing vote of thanks for her commendable work in making the Christmas Bazaar a success. The chapter voted to make the bazaar an annual project.

The president appointed a committee, composed of Mrs. R. M. LaGrone, Mrs. George Robinson and Mrs. W. M. Duckett to investigate the possibility of establishing a Scholarship Fund.

Mrs. Dorsey McKee Jr. reported that clothing had been provided for 60 school children. An appeal was made to the members and towns people for coats, sweaters, jackets and any other warm clothes to be brought to the Thrift Shop on West 2nd St. next to the Saenger Theater.

A report from Prof. Will Rutherford, principle of Yeager High School was read. He thanked the group for a fund for clothing and gave an itemized account of the money spent for clothing in the different schools.

Mrs. W. M. Duckett, Mrs. Frank Nolen and Mrs. E. P. Young Jr. were appointed as a committee to plan and execute Valentine remembrances and decorations for the nursing homes in Hope.

Mrs. Walter Verhalen Jr. announced that visual tests would be given in the local elementary schools during February and in March.

The president reminded the nominating committee that the slate of new officers for the new year must be presented at the April meeting.

Cuban Plot in Assassination Is Claimed

GUATEMALA (AP)—President Miguel Ydigoras' government claims to have uncovered an assassination plot by Cuban-Communist direction that marked him several Cabinet ministers and Roman Catholic Archbishop Mariano Rosal Arellano for death.

Ydigoras charged that the killing of his secret police chief Wednesday night was the opening attack in the anti-government offensive and that it was the work of "Guatemalan and international gunmen in the service of Marxism directed from Cuba."

The conservative president proclaimed a state of siege—modified martial law—throughout the densely populated Central American republic and ordered a dusk-to-dawn curfew.

Mobilized in full force, police seized two leftist political leaders, Mario Mendez Montenegro of the Revolutionary party and Manuel Colom Argueta of the New Democratic Revolutionary Union.

The president said the state of siege would remain in effect 30 days. Congress was summoned to ratify the decree.

The decree bans public gatherings of more than four persons, prohibits political party activities, and gives authorities the right to search houses without court warrants and to search and seize automobiles.

The government took over control of all radio and television stations but there was no immediate move to censor newspapers.

All Around Town

By The Star Staff

Starting next week the Star will start a series of articles designed to give the public a true picture of the tax assessment in the county. . . there will be a breakdown of assessments in every corporation and school district in the county. . . many things will be surprising to the public. . . for instance, contrary to what we have been told by a veteran courthouse worker the assessment of household goods in the entire county has dropped $51,630 in the past two years. . . the report will show that not a single sheep or goat is registered on the tax book. . . it will show that Saratoga which just passed a 10 mill school tax increase, will have a hard time realizing much from the additional millage because assessments in the school district have dropped $11,200 in a single year. . . in the report the Star will make a three year comparison.

Department Store Sales Greater

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Department store sales in the Eighth Federal Reserve District for the week ending January 20 were 10 per cent greater than during the corresponding period in 1961, the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis said today.

Memphis led the surge with a 21 per cent increase, followed by Louisville, 15 per cent; St. Louis, 8 per cent; Little Rock, 6 per cent, and smaller reporting points showing a composite 3 per cent gain.

However, for the latest four-week period the district was down 4 per cent from the level attained in the comparable period last year. Louisville showed a gain of 4 per cent and smaller cities a combined increase of 3 per cent. Memphis was at the same level as a year ago while St. Louis was down 8 per cent and Little Rock down 10 per cent.

Hopes Sag for Stern Action Against Castro

By WILLIAM L. RYAN

PUNTA DEL ESTE, Uruguay (AP)—The United States fought today for stern action against Castro communism, but hopes sagged sharply under the pressure of mounting opposition among its hemispheric partners.

Uruguay joined the ranks of the so-called soft seven favoring kid glove treatment of the Havana regime.

The eight nations evidently intended to pull the teeth from U.S. proposals to quarantine Castro, set up safeguards against infiltration, sever trade links and drum Havana out of deliberations candelabra Havana out of deliberations of the Organization of American States.

The sudden adherence of Uruguay, the host nation, to the soft seven bloc imperiled prospects for the necessary two-thirds vote for stern measures.

Some delegates admitted an impasse had been reached, but still expressed confidence some solution will be found this weekend.

Rusk and Venezuelan Foreign Minister Marcos Falcon Briceño met throughout the morning with foreign ministers of three nations of the group—Argentina, Chile and Brazil. But the session broke up without any progress toward budging the opposition, particularly Brazil. The men arranged further meetings this afternoon.

The deadlock tossed the inter-American foreign ministers conference back another 24 hours. The ministers agreed to extend the deadline for presentation of a resolution for inclusion in the final conference act. The deadline is now 7 p.m. Saturday.

Brazil and Mexico — probably with the support of most if not all other members of the so-called soft seven—objected bitterly to the U.S. plans for a watchdog committee against subversion. The United States wants the committee set up by the inter-American defense board. This would tend to give it a military character.

Opponents object to the military look and demanded that any such committee be within the framework of the OAS council as a sort of political consultative body. This could be regarded as watering down the impact.

There are also objections to the process by which Cuba would be read out of OAS bodies. Working groups were trying to devise a formula that would be acceptable to most. The main point is this: that Brazil, Mexico and the others of their group stand on the legalistic ground that Cuba is a member of the OAS and cannot be read out within terms of the OAS charter. If they have their way, the effect could be at least to delay Cuba's ejection.

Members of the seven—perhaps all of them—also disagree with the U.S. call for an end to the present limited trade between Cuba and Latin America. This proposal, in effect economic sanctions, is aimed primarily at stopping the arms trade in both directions.

Brazil led the nations balking stern treatment of the Havana government. The stand by Latin America's largest nation provoked outspoken criticism from congressional members of the U.S. delegation to the hemispheric foreign ministers' conference.

Rusk arranged to meet once again this morning with the Brazilian, Chilean and Argentine foreign ministers in an attempt to break down their reluctance to vote economic penalties against Cuba and to speed the ouster of the Havana regime from the deliberative council of the Organization of American States.

There was still talk of a prospective deadlock between the points of view of the seven nations advocating a go-slow approach and the other 13, including the United States, backing a tougher line. Fourteen nations—two-thirds of the OAS membership—must approve the declaration on Cuban communism with which the conference is scheduled to end Monday.

Nothing fair to middling about the spacious and spunky new lineup of low-priced cars from Chevrolet! From the looks of these nifty top-of-the-line Novas (unmistakably new), you'd never guess they're so easy to own. Even some bigger cars wonder how we got so much full-size family room into such a parkable package—and such hustle out of a 6 that sips gas so sparingly. Your dealer will point out more reasons why luxury and a low price have never been more beautifully blended!

The Steeple Is Making a Comeback

By JULES LOH
AP Staff Writer

The church steeple, immortalized by pen and brush as a symbol of that old time religion, is making a comeback in America. According to a leading steeple maker, use of spires on the nation's churches has increased 40 per cent in the past five years, and they are being used more widely today than at any time since the days of Currier and Ives.

One reason is because many churches have had renovation experiences like that of the First Presbyterian Church of Milton, Pa.

For years the tower of this venerable church, built during the 1850's stood truncated. Its 57 foot wood and slate spire had been damaged by a storm years ago, removed as a hazard, and for a variety of reasons never replaced.

Recently a crew of engineers, working from a yellowed photograph of the old church, duplicated the original spire in aluminum, prefabricated it in a modern plant, trucked it to the church and hoisted it atop the tower. Lightweight, versatile metals, many of them developed or perfected since World War II, have made heavy and expensive supporting structures no longer necessary.

Except for duplications of original steeples, contemporary churches (some call them modern) have spires bearing little resemblance to the old fashioned square structures of colonial days. St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church in Weston, Conn., for example, has a broad-based spire made of glass and located above the altar. The bell tower of St. Peter's Lutheran Church of New York, N.Y., is an open structure of vertical and horizontal beams with the bells exposed to view.

H. W. Weber Jr., executive vice president of Overly Manufacturing Co., whose spires adorn churches of nearly every denomination in all parts of the country, says there are both geographical and denominational preferences for spires.

Surprisingly, the colonial type spire, a hallmark of old New England, now has its largest market in the South. New England church builders today install as many contemporary spires as colonial.

Highland newspaper, Dr. S. A. Kayer, a native of Turkey, who has practiced medicine in Highland for about eight years, wrote the letter from his bed at Jewish Hospital in St. Louis, where he underwent surgery last week for obstructive jaundice.

"The operation revealed the cause of my jaundice to be a cancer of the pancreas. Unfortunately, this cancer had already invaded the surrounding tissue, which made the surgical cure impossible," the letter said.

"I feel, of course, that it is unfortunate to have such a condition at the age of 41, but like some of my fine patients my family and I must accept this fate."

"My wife and I will always remember the kindness and concern of our friends and of my patients. I am confident that I shall find the strength and courage through God and your friendship for these days, and those that follow."

Dr. Kayer, who has three children, said he has been told he improve temporarily, but "within six or eight months the inevitable will come."

The physician came to the United States as a medical student and studied at the University of Pennsylvania.

Kennedy at His Best at Conference

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy was at his best Wednesday, after a series of rather dull news conferences, with sharpness, humor, and a new kind of toughness.

His relaxed self-assurance was like the Kennedy of the early news conferences in 1961.

He plugged for milk and the 40-hour week and, in showing an extremely detailed knowledge of government, swined at Republicans and discussed foreign trade, censoring the military, and his programs in Congress.

But in 19 years of attending presidential news conferences, going back to Franklin D. Roosevelt's days, this writer has never seen a President flatter a reporter as severely as Kennedy did Wednesday.

He toughened visibly when a newsman, bluntly accusing two State Department employees of being "well-known security risks," said they had just been given jobs involving security. Upon his request she named them.

He said he had examined the men's records and approved their assignments. Kennedy didn't ask the woman to back up her charge. But he said she should be able to do so.

Then, as a murmur swept through the big auditorium, Kennedy said he hoped the men's characters would not be damaged by her statement.

Kennedy moved easily through the questioning but it was in the political field that he provided the biggest surprise.

Not long before he met the press the House Rules Committee, one of the most powerful groups in Congress, had refused to approve his request for a new department of urban affairs and housing.

On this committee there are 10 Democrats and 5 Republicans. The vote against the new department was 9 to 6. Four Southern Democrats joined all five Republicans in turning Kennedy down.

Kennedy blandly ignored the fact that on this committee, where his Democrats outnumber Republicans two to one, the five Republicans couldn't have blocked him if four Democrats hadn't joined them.

Kennedy said he was "astounded" at the Republicans. Then he ripped into them out never mentioned the desertion of his own Southern Democrats.

What was surprising about it was this: He has gone out of his way in the past few months to woo Republican support for his programs. On some of them he'll need such support in both House and Senate.

It could be taken for granted—since this is a congressional election year—that once Congress had finished next summer and the political campaign began that Kennedy would have taken some cracks at Republicans.

But for him to start shooting Wednesday was like beginning to hunt before the season opened. At the least it might only mean that he's just beginning to store up ammunition before the election begins.

He's been extremely mild with Republicans since he took office last year, too mild to please some critics who figure mildness never won anything and that if he wants to get his programs through he has to fight for them.

If Wednesday's attack really means the beginning of a new fighting Kennedy, this year's session of Congress will be more interesting than 1961, and so will Kennedy.

There must be something about milk that brings out the pique Kennedy.

Two days ago at the National Conference on Milk and Nutrition after encouraging the public to drink milk, Kennedy reached into the desk he was using and came up with a big glass of milk. He drank it.

Wednesday, after putting in another plug for milk-drinking, he announced his press secretary, chubby Pierre Salinger, had had a glass of milk in the morning "with no adverse effect."

Greek Church Figure Resigns

ATHENS (AP)—The recently elected Greek Orthodox primate, Archbishop Iakovos, resigned today under Greek government pressure. A spokesman for the synod said the government's minister of religious affairs accepted the resignation.

In a statement read by a synod spokesman the archbishop, elected Jan. 13 to Greece's highest Orthodox Church post, said: "I for you ever hope to retain her love. Be patient until values take their relative places in her mind and a bitter controversy following charges against the 60-year-old archbishop made by a Greek Orthodox archmandrite, a general and an admiral. The nature of the charges was not disclosed.

DOROTHY DIX
Bewildered Mother Can't Cope With Daughter

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: With the exception of our 18-year-old daughter, we are a happy family. Over night she has changed from a lovable, friendly, eager child into a stranger, rude to her parents, cross with her two brothers, one of whom is 20, the other 6.

She is still a good girl and holds down a fine paying job. Doing for herself, making her own decisions has become a fetish with her.

Gone are her warmth of heart, desire to help others, and laughter. Life is dead serious.

She is the one-man woman type and has been going with the same boy, whom she is about to marry, for a year and a half. He is 19 and we thoroughly approve even though he is not of our faith.

They were to be married in our church at his decision. Now, with wedding arrangements practically complete, our daughter abruptly announced that the ceremony will be held in his church.

We have swallowed hard and done our best to accept the edict, concealing our wounded feelings.

Not content with a stab, our daughter turned the knife by telling us only yesterday that she is joining her husband's church.

Her grandparents refuse to attend the wedding. Her father balks at giving her away. To all of this she cruelly retorts that her future in-laws will be there, so why worry? We have only met the boys' family once so know little about them. What should be a happy occasion has become a nightmare. Where have we failed? —Unhappy Mother.

Dear Unhappy Mother: Your daughter is evidently experiencing late in adolescence the transition which hits most teen-age girls at an earlier age. After the honeymoon, she will probably revert to her normal self. If she could have gone with more than one boy before marriage, it might have eased the tension.

Sex, not religion could be the motivating force in her life at this moment. But she is of age and if she chooses to stand on her head and embrace the Hottentot faith, that is her privilege.

Hard though it is to take, let her run her own wedding, and pay for it. Only by letting go, can you ever hope to retain her love. Be patient until values take their relative places in her mind and a bitter controversy following charges against the 60-year-old archbishop made by a Greek Orthodox archmandrite, a general and an admiral. The nature of the charges was not disclosed.

Dear Helen: There is one happy teen-ager in this world—me. I am a middle child with an older sister, 15, and a younger sister who is 11. I am 14. My younger sister and I share a room and have more fun than there is space to tell. We respect each others' rights and privacy. When the door to our room is closed, our rule is: Knock before entering.

Our parents taught us to think of others first. They are so wonderful and understanding. I thank the Lord every night for them. This is written to cheer you up and let you know that not all teen-agers are troubled. —World's Happiest Teen

Dear Teen: Thank you for the cheery note. You are fortunate indeed to be endowed with understanding parents. But don't be too confident. There will be trials ahead. Keep loving your parents and thank God.

Dear Helen: We live in a fine section and have wonderful neighbors with one exception—a woman who pacifies her curiosity by sucking her thumb. No one on our block can breathe without this hussy knowing why, where, and with whom. How she gets her information is beyond me. If she spent more time worrying about the needs of her long-suffering family and less about the doings of others, everybody would be better off. What, if anything, can be done with such a woman? —If-the-Hat-Fits-Wear-It

Dear If-the-Hat-Fits: Set the gossip-monger an example by ignoring her. Meet only in passing and then aside from a pleasant "Hello," and "Goodbye," clam up. The silent treatment is the surest cure.

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine, care of this newspaper. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Her letters available. Write for "Neighbors."

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — LeRoy Scott, principal of Little Rock Technical High School for the past 17 years, has been named athletic director of the Little Rock schools.

He replaces state Rep Harry Carter, who resigned to become representative of a book company. He had been athletic director since 1956.

Democrats Figure They Split Even

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Democratic strategists figured today they had lost a small skirmish and probably won a major political war by as apparent reversal in the Rules Committee.

To the surprise of no one, the committee Wednesday rejected President Kennedy's proposal to create a Cabinet-status department of urban affairs and housing.

The President lost no time in expressing astonishment that all five Republicans on the committee voted against sending the bill to the House floor for a vote.

Within an hour after the committee acted by 9 to 6 vote, the President told a news conference he would continue to fight for the new department. And he said he planned to name a Negro, Robert C. Weaver, to head the agency and join his Cabinet if the department is established. Weaver now heads the Housing and Home Finance Agency.

The renewed fight, the President said, would be in the form of a reorganization plan to be sent to Congress. The plan would establish the department by executive order unless either branch of Congress vetoed it within 60 days.

Some top House Democrats predicted the reorganization plan would be defeated by roll call vote. They expect a majority of Republicans and most Southern Democrats to oppose it.

While there was no official confirmation, there was a well-based suspicion that the Rules Committee action did not make the new House leadership unhappy.

It was known that the show-down could have been delayed had Speaker John W. McCormack of Massachusetts requested it. In the Man Killed in El Dorado Wreck

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP) — Mrs. Bruce Martin, 22, of Orlando, Fla., was killed early today when the small foreign car she was driving collided with a station wagon 10 miles west of El Dorado on U.S. Highway 82.

State Trooper August Pieroni said Mrs. Martin and her husband were traveling from Denver, Colo. to Orlando.

He said Martin followed the station wagon around a transport truck, then crashed into its rear. Martin, asleep on the back seat when the accident occurred, was not seriously hurt, Pieroni said.

Delegates interpreted this as a reference to India's recent takeover of Portuguese Goa and Indonesia's threat to seize New Guinea from the Netherlands.

Stevenson expressed hope that the assembly would adopt a resolution embodying the peaceful principles of the U.N. charter and that Portugal "in its wisdom will respond."

Body Is Found

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The frozen mangled body of Clarence Walker, a nine year old Negro, was found Tuesday by a train crew in the Missouri Pacific Railroad yards here. Police said the boy apparently was struck by a train Monday night while taking a short cut home.

face of certain defeat, McCormack made no such request to Chairman Howard W. Smith, D-Va., one of the four Southern Democrats who voted against the bill.

Instead, it was learned, McCormack merely requested and received approval of a bill to provide federal aid for college classroom facilities construction.

Democrats hope to make considerable political hay out of the committee action. They believe the fact that committee Republicans opposed the urban affairs bill 100 per cent, while Democrats backed it 60 per cent, will hurt Republican election chances in big city areas where the GOP hope to pick up House seats in November's elections.

U. S. Warns No Force in Colonial Fuss

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The United States has served notice that nations using force to settle colonial issues in Angola or anywhere else "can expect vigorous opposition from the United States whenever they may be."

U.S. Chief Delegate Adlai E. Stevenson issued the warning Thursday after telling the General Assembly that if opponents of Portugal take up arms to wrest the African colony of Angola from Lisbon's control, the results could be disastrous for the U.N.

Britain's Sir Patrick Dean also was expected to urge moderation in an address to the assembly today on the Angola crisis.

"In Angola the broad character of the solution is clear," Stevenson said. "It does not lie in a fruitless attempt to repress inevitable change. Nor does it lie in the fomenting of violence and extremism."

Stevenson's appeal thus was directed to both Portugal and to some African nations who have warned during the Angolan debate that they would not stand by and see the Lisbon regime continue its present policies in Angola. The U.S. delegate prodded Portugal to let the Angolans decide their political future peacefully. He also said the United States has obtained assurances from Lisbon that no North Atlantic Treaty Organization equipment will be used in the colony.

"The use of force in colonial questions is no more justified than in any other question," Stevenson declared, "and any effort to establish a dual standard of conduct with respect to them could not fail seriously to endanger the entire structure of the United Nations."

Delegates interpreted this as a reference to India's recent takeover of Portuguese Goa and Indonesia's threat to seize New Guinea from the Netherlands.

Stevenson expressed hope that the assembly would adopt a resolution embodying the peaceful principles of the U.N. charter and that Portugal "in its wisdom will respond."

Hope Girls in Finals; 2 Games Here Tonight

By VINCE FOSTER

Last night at the County Tournament in Spring Hill, the Hope Girls surprised everyone by beating Saratoga 48-24, thus putting Hope in the finals of Saturday. In action at Jones Field House the Junior (G) continued their winning ways by taking Emmet 24-18, while the "B" boys were dropped 32-29 and the 8th grade team fell 23-15.

The Lady Cats, who had previously been beaten by Saratoga 32-25, turned the tables. They led all the way last night with the score by quarters 17-9, 32-14, 40-20 and 48-24. Melba Calhoun was high for Hope, sacking 21 points while Calicut took 16, Lloyd 9 and Duke 2. West, Farmer, Odum, Owen, Griffin and Bruce saw defensive action.

The low scoring 8th grade game stood 2-0 in the first quarter with Emmet on the heavy side. They led 10-6 at the half and then went on win by outscoring the local 13-9 in the final half. Strong was high for Hope with 5, followed by Ellis and Ramsey with 4 each and Watkins took 2. Paulkner was high for Emmet with 10.

The "B" boys trailed by a slight margin throughout the game and Emmet was out front 19-13 at the half. Although Hope outscored the visitors 16-13 in the final half, they lost it 32-29. McDowell led Hope with 10, followed by Sprague with 6, Reinhardt with 4, Hughes 3, Thrash, Honeycutt and Horton with 2 each. Olivell led Emmet with 10.

The Junior Girls stretched their record to 5-2, as they whipped Emmet again last night. They led 7-2, 17-10, 24-14 and 24-18 in the respective quarters. Smith was high with 11, followed by Hatfield with 6, Martin 4, and Ellis had 3.

Tonight at Jones Field House, the Bobcats and Kittens met Fairview in two important district games and Saturday they travel to Crossville for two more. Also remember that the Lady Cats play Guernsey Saturday in the finals of the County Tournament at Spring Hill.

Four of the top five individual scorers, the first two in field goal and free throw accuracy and 10 of the 11 highest scoring teams are from Dixie, the NCAA service bureau said today in its weekly statistics.

Heading the list is 6-foot-5 Roger Strickland of Jacksonville (Fla.) University, who continues as the individual scoring leader with a 32.9 average.

Behind him are Ken Saylor (31.0) of Arkansas Tech, Bob Ferrell (31.2) of Davis & Elkins and Lindberg Moody (29.8) of South Carolina State. The only Yankee intruder in the top five is Bob Gumaer (30.0) of Brockport (N.Y.) State.

James Allen of Arkansas AM&N ranks seventh in scoring with 405 points in 14 games for a 28.9 average.

Saylor has 331 points in 12 games for a 31.8 average, according to the national statistics. He has hit 130 field goals and 103 free throws.

Leading in field goal accuracy are John Whitaker (.670) of Bryan (Tenn.) and John Fickile (.613) of McNeese (La.) State. In free throw accuracy, Wayne Malone of S.P. Austin (.918) and Western Maryland's Dave Martin (.889) are the leaders.

Rejuvenated Hawks Seek 6th Win

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The rejuvenated St. Louis Hawks, getting the play-making they needed from Lennie Wilkens, seek their sixth straight victory tonight in a determined bid to catch Detroit and make the National Basketball Association playoffs.

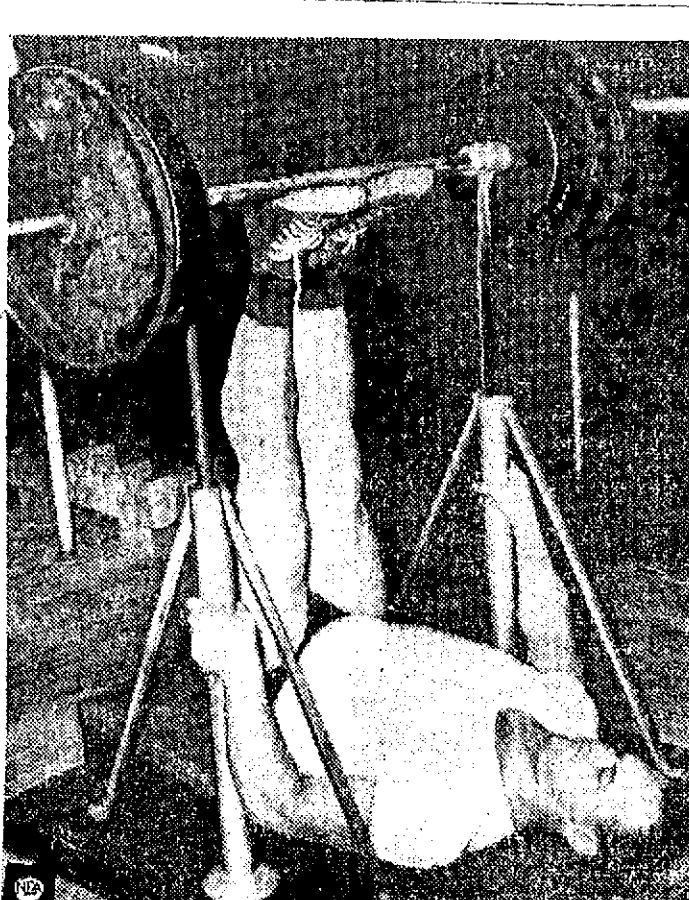

The Hawks, five-time Western Division leaders, collapsed this season and plummeted to fourth place in the most surprising development of the year. Backcourt problems were the biggest headache.

Wilkens, a former Providence ace, is playing with the Hawks while on leave from the Army and has sparked St. Louis to its best showing of the season.

They'll be after their sixth straight tonight against Philadelphia in Hershey, Pa. They trail Detroit by three games in the fight for third place, the last position for the playoffs.

The Pistons gained a half game on the idle Hawks with a 101-100 victory over Syracuse in the first game of a Chicago doubleheader Thursday night. New York beat the Packers 117-102 in the second game.

Brasilia, Brazil, is in the state of Mato Grosso. The state's name means "big woods," but less than half of it is jungle. Much of it is grassland.

PACKS WEIGHT—Jack Stroud lifts weights and is a salesman for a printing firm when not playing with the professional football New York Giants. The star guard lifts 600 pounds in a leg press in a Cleveland gymnasium.

Benefit Cage Game Set for Saturday

There will be two Benefit Basketball Games Saturday night, Jan. 27 at 7 in Jones Field House with proceeds going to the March of Dimes.

Those on the Sears Hot Shots team, coached by Jimmie Griffin, will be Vivian Mitchell, Virginia Honea, Lovena Barber, Ruth Ann Bruce, Mable Ward, Lila Sanders, Valdene Tomemaker, Margaret Beyerly, Leonie Bailey, Betty White, Ruth Schooley, Jeraldine Ellis, Betty Murders, Carolyn Hatfield and Inez Compton with Frank Horton, Trainer. Cheering for Sears will be Verlain Jones, Opat Daniels, Martha Allison and Virginia Jones. Referees will be Haskel Jones and Scrut Mosier.

No Stopping Those Cubs of Chicago

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

There's no stopping those Chicago Cubs, heading for first place again—at the conference table.

The Cubs have 33 players signed for the 1962 campaign, with pitchers Dick Ellsworth and Bobby Locke the latest to ink contracts, and need only four more into the fold to become the first club to complete their roster for the third year in succession.

Holding up the distinction for the 1962 baseball campaign are pitchers Barney Schults and Dave Gerard, infielder Ron Santo and outfielder Nellie Mathews.

Ellsworth, 22, a left-hander, compiled a 10-11 record last year with a 3.85 earned run average. Locke, who came to the Cubs in an interleague deal that sent infielder Jerry Kindall to Cleveland, was 4-4 with a 4.55 ERA for the Indians, mostly in relief.

The Los Angeles Dodgers got one of their toughest customers to sign Thursday when shortstop Maury Wills agreed to terms for $24,000, a $3,000 raise. Wills was the last member of the club to initial his contract last year.

Wills led National League shortstops in fielding and hitting last season and became the first Dodger to win the base-stealing title two consecutive years.

Milwaukee's Braves signed No. 20 when pitcher Tony Cloninger, 3-7 with the Braves and 2-5 at Louisville last season, came to terms. The Cincinnati Reds came up with a signed contract from first baseman Gordie Coleman.

The Baltimore Orioles got outfielder Dick Williams and first baseman Marv Throneberry on the dotted line.

State Signed 2 Memphis Players

MEMPHIS (AP) — Two high school football stars, including All-Memphis tackle Bill Stoddard, were signed to grants-in-aid by Arkansas State College Thursday night.

Stoddard and the other signee, halfback Jerry Cole, played for Memphis South Side.

Censor Board

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Little Rock Censor Board has asked the Parent-Teacher Association to help with a drive against what it considers obscene and sexy magazines. Mrs. Christine Olds, board chairman, said the P-T-A would be asked to make a mother's march on newsstands.

Texarkanian Dies

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — Dr. Harry E. Murray, 67, former president of the Arkansas Academy of General Practitioners, died here Thursday after a brief illness. He was a native of Bearden and began practice here in 1920. Survivors include his widow and one son, Dr. J. Warren Murray of Fayetteville.

Kneecr, Tommy Aaron, Paul Harney, Stan Leonard, Ken Venturi, Eric Monti and Don Falfield were grouped with Ford in the 3-under-par position.

A stroke behind them at 69 were Dow Finsterwald, Bob Shave, Dutch Harrison, Jackie Burke, Australia's Bruce Crampton, Billy Casper and Jack Fleck.

The defending champion, South African star Gary Player, was in contention with a 70 and, after his sub-par round, declared he was playing fine golf and the prospects looked good.

Bud Has No Thought of Not Coaching

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The job of overseeing the country's youth fitness program has its demands, but Oklahoma's Bud Wilkinson says he has no intention of giving up football coaching to become a full-time government bureaucrat.

"I feel that my value in this health crusade is better served if I remain active as a coach," he added. "Unless Oklahoma has other ideas, I plan to stay where I am—for a few years more, at least."

Wilkinson was in New York today in the interest of the Council on Youth Fitness, for which he was handpicked by President Kennedy to serve as special consultant.

The council and a large insurance firm (the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States) are cooperating in the production of a new, 30-minute film on physical fitness. The film, to be started this month at a cost of $100,000, will be made available to schools and community organizations.

"I spent all last summer working with the council—in fact, I moved my family to Washington," Wilkinson said. "I will devote all my spare time—outside of the spring training and regular football season—to this work."

"But I haven't been asked, nor do I intend, to make it a year-around project—as important as I feel the entire idea is. My value to the fitness campaign is as a football coach and a spokesman. I am happy to serve in this capacity, but I work for the University of Oklahoma."

Legislature Corrupt

Editor The Star: The role of the newspaper editor, especially that of the town or country weekly, is an enviable one. He has perhaps more powerful influence in molding public opinion than any other person in his community. Usually he can bring about the passage or defeat of measures submitted to the public, and frequently he can, more than the political boss of the community, be the cause of the election or defeat of candidates for office.

Consequently the newspaper editors of the state can even dislodge an executive who has served as many as four terms. Conceivably editors can prevent the return to the State Legislature of old guard members.

It is the privilege and even the duty of the newspaper editor to turn the spotlight on those members of the legislature who in former sessions of the assembly have participated in the extravagant and even corrupt practices in which they indulge. If I were a newspaper editor and knew that the representative or senator from my district had collected more money and benefits than the Constitution permits, I would certainly tell my readers about it. If a representative from my county had in previous sessions permitted his wife, his relatives, or his friends to receive cash payments for services which they did not render to the state, I would reveal the facts to the voters.

I make the assertion that the last two or three sessions of the State Legislature have been more extravagant and more corrupt than any in the past one half century.

Certain old guard members look upon Legislature now more as a play party than a public service. They do not hesitate to vote for unconstitutional measures nor to support dishonest practices.

Enough money could have been saved in the past two Legislative sessions to provide a fund of one half million dollars for an Arkansas exhibit for the 1964 World Fair.

In recent years a Carroll County officer was given a prison sentence on a charge of appropriating state money, but no punishment was meted out to a County Representative who obtained for his wife warrants totaling over $1700 — alleged to be her salary for services rendered to the House of Representatives — whereas she remained home constantly while the Assembly was in session. It is not disputed that members of the House and Senate accepted money beyond their Constitutional salary. Numerous members caused members of their family to be placed on the House or Senate payroll who did not render any service to the House or Senate.

If we are to have a purge of the Legislature, it is up to the newspaper editor to point out these inequities to assist the voter in making a choice for candidates for re-election.

I repeat — the State Legislature has become more corrupt along these lines than for more than one half century.
